

Peer Researcher Job Opportunity

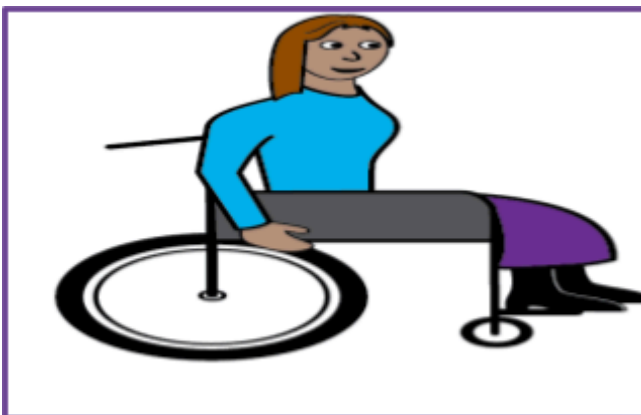

About the project

- We are starting a new project about discrimination and young people

- We are working with two groups of young people

- Young South Asian women with a physical disability

- Young Black men with care experience

- We have two jobs available

- These jobs are for people with lived experience

What will you do?

- Be creative
- Work with other young people
- Help write reports
- Think about health and wellbeing

What are we looking for?

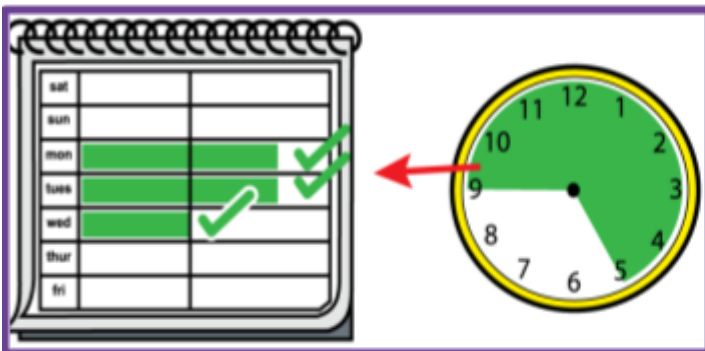

- Curiosity
- Interest in health and wellbeing

- Interest in things like photography
- Good team player

More about the role:

- The role is part - time
- This means that it is 3 days a week

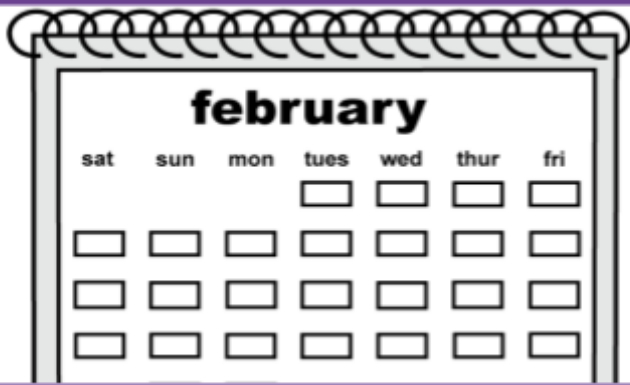

- You will be paid to take on the job
- The amount we will pay you is £15, 124

12 months

- Your payment will be for 12 months of your time working on the project

february

- This role will start in February 2025

For more information, please contact:

- Jahan Foster-Zabit
- jahan@racefound.org.uk
- 07568116303

